Re: United States v. Stephen M. Calk, S1 19 Cr. 366 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

The Government writes to respectfully request that its date to file a sentencing submission, which is currently December 13, 2021, be extended by nine days, until December 22. Counsel for the defendant consents to this request.

Sentencing in this matter is scheduled for February 7, 2022. (Dkt. 288). On December 6, 2021, the defendant filed its sentencing submission, the publicly filed version of which comprises 293 pages including attachments. (Dkt. 293). The current schedule gives the Government one week to respond. In order to allow it to provide a sentencing submission that is helpful to the Court, the Government respectfully submits that the requested 9-day extension, which will result in the Government's submission being due more than a month before sentencing, is fair and appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
